EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

As education is a Concurrent List subject, the provision of education is the joint responsibility of the Centre and the States. Additionally, the Ministry of Education also prescribes standards for higher education and regulates matters related to institutions of national importance. The Central Government's share in total public investment in education (Centre and States combined) has decreased from 19% in 2014-15 to 13% in 2021-22. As per the Economic Survey (2021-22), India's share of public investment in education has largely remained constant at 3% of the GDP. This is much less than that of countries such as Germany, USA, UK, and South Africa, which have a public investment level of 5-6% of their GDP in education. The National Education Policy 2020 (NEP-2020) reiterates the goal of increasing public investment in education to 6% of the GDP.

One of the thrust areas of the NEP is providing food and nutritional support. As per National Family Health Survey (NFHS-5), 2019-21, a significant number of children below five years of age suffer from stunting (35%), wasting (19%), and being underweight (32%). In the past two years, the midday meal scheme received a little more than half of the amount sought from the Finance Ministry.

Over the past two years, the COVID-19 pandemic has aggravated some of the existing challenges in school education. As online learning replaced classroom learning, issues related to the availability of digital devices and internet access have negatively impacted learning. Additionally, COVID has 'shifted' students from private schools to public schools (ASER 2021). To deal with the increased enrolment, the Economic Survey (2021-22) recommends equipping public schools with additional teachers, classrooms and teaching materials. As schools reopen after two years, it will be essential to understand the learning losses that have taken place and develop measures to overcome them.

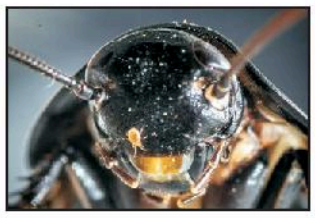
Zoo lets you name a roach after your sweetheart



Bronx: Zoos across the U.S. are offering swarms of opportunities to name cockroaches after loved ones.

The Bronx Zoo's Name a Roach program, now in its 11th year, offers an unusual way to show your undying love. For 15 dollars, you can name a Madagascar hissing cockroach after your special someone. The money benefits the Wildlife Conservation Society, a nonprofit organization, the zoo's website says.

For someone like Susie, described on the zoo's site as a "satisfied roach namer and lover of romance," naming a roach has become a Valentine's Day tradition. "Roses and chocolates come and go, but roaches last an eternity," Susie says, "just like our love!"

Three cats hold a blender as hostage

British Columbia: Jessica Gerson-Neeves and his wife, Nikii, are really looking forward to using their new Vitamix blender to whip up smoothies and soups. In fact, the highly anticipated Black Friday purchase has recently become the focal point of their kitchen at home in British Columbia, Canada.

There's just one problem: They can't actually unpack it. "It arrived in the mail on Dec. 16, and I brought it inside and set the box down on the kitchen floor for just a quick second," Gerson-Neeves says. "And that was a month ago."

The cardboard box has become the site of a weeks-long turf war between the couple and their three cats, in a saga that has garnered thousands of invested followers on social media. Gerson-Neeves said that the cats aren't literally holding the Vitamix hostage. They could, of course, be hoisted off the box at any point. But she says she is not in a rush to end the stalemate since it's providing some much-needed levity.

Never-ending travails on Kalidasa Road

Sir,

Kalidasa road generates good tax revenue to Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) by virtue of having various types of commercial establishments like banks, clinics, hospitals, medical shops, eateries, garment stores and various other showrooms. But unfortunately this is the most neglected road by MCC causing hardship to all the persons using this road.

It is next to impossible to cross to the other side of Kalidasa Road at any point of time because vehicles will be zooming past continuously. This issue can be resolved by erecting a couple of high raise pedestrian crossings at a few locations, forcing the zooming vehicles to slow down.

The entire stretch of footpath of Kalidasa Road on either sides are with undulations making it impossible to walk on the footpath freely. Since the footpath cannot be used, pedestrians are constrained to walk on the road parallel to the vehicles zooming past them, risking their lives. It is definitely not beyond the financial capacity of MCC to pave good, walkable footpath on Kalidasa Road to help the public.

But unfortunately MCC is not interested to mitigate the woes faced by the tax-paying public, but their only interest is to fill their coffers with public funds.

CM announces Rs. 5 crore aid for Shakthidhama

Basavaraj Bommai unveils Infosys Foundation Block

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (SBD&DM)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said that the Government will provide Rs. 5 crore assistance for Shakthidhama Women's Rehabilitation and Development Centre here.

He was speaking after inaugurating the 'Infosys Block' and laying the foundation stone for 'Shakthidhama Vidyashale' at Shakthidhama Centre on Nanjangud Road here.

Pointing out that the State Government has earmarked Rs.43,000 crore for women empowerment, the CM said that the Government has set aside Rs. 500 crore for self-employment of over 4 lakh women. The Mysuru Shakthidhama is supportive of all women empowerment schemes, he said adding that more such organisations should come up.

Noting that Mother is the only link with our previous birth, Bommai said that, however, it is deeply regretful to note that atrocities and violence on women who are responsible for our birth is taking place.

Recalling the efforts of Thespian late Dr. Rajkumar, his wife Parvathamma Rajkumar and former IPS officer Kempaiah in the establishment of Shakthidhama, the CM said that the organisation is now doing the work that the Government and the society should have done. Noting that late actor Puneeth Rajkumar had a motherly attachment with Shakthidhama, he said that Puneeth is reinforcing strength to it from his heavenly abode.

Continuing, Bommai contended that mere words will not help in getting social justice and that work must be done for upliftment of the downtrodden whenever an opportunity arises.

Stressing on the need for responding to societal problems and pains, the CM observed that equity in the balance sheet of life can be maintained only if one gives something back to the society.

Recalling the huge help and support extended by Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and Dr. Sudha Murty of Infosys Foundation, Bommai said that the children of Shakthidhama are virtuous to have seen their parents in Dr. Rajkumar, Parvathamma Rajkumar, Shivarajkumar, Geetha Shivarajkumar and Puneeth Rajkumar.

Provide equal opportunities for women: Suttur Seer

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, who graced the occasion, stressed on the need for giving equal opportunities for women and said that the Shakthidhama is working in this direction.

Stating that the entire population of the State was in deep sorrow when actor Puneeth Rajkumar passed away all of a sudden, the Seer said that this showed the popularity and the influence that the young actor had in the society. Appu, as the late actor was fondly known, would remain forever in the hearts of the people, he added.

Recalling that a large crowd had gathered at the Open Air Theatre in Manasagangothri, the venue where Dr. Rajkumar was conferred the Honorary Doctorate by the University of Mysore in 1976, he said that the thespian's humbleness could be seen when he waved at the crowd displaying a message that the Doctorate conferred on him belonged to the people of Karnataka.

Shakthidhama Trustee G.S. Jayadev said that the Silver Jubilee celebrations of Shakthidhama is taking place this year, for which there are plans to organise a series of programmes. The event will also mark the 60th birthday celebration of actor Shivarajkumar, he added.

Shakthidhama President Geetha Shivarajkumar, wife of actor Shivarajkumar, in her address, said that Shakthidhama Vidyashala will start functioning from the forthcoming academic year itself.

Pointing out that a Kaushalya Bhavan has been built in the premises at a cost of Rs. 5 crore that was provided by the Siddharamaiah Government, she said that the Vidyasahala will function from this building for now and will be shifted to the new building once the construction is completed.

Stating that former IPS officer Kempaiah should have been the President of Shakthidhama after the demise of Parvathamma Rajkumar, she said that she took over as the President as Kempaiah appealed her to take over. She expressed her thanks to all those who rendered help for the growth of Shakthidhama.

Actor Shivarajkumar said that he has been visiting Shakthidhama frequently after Appu passed away. Stating that he is deeply moved whenever Shakthidhama children fondly call him during his visit, he said that he will give his best for the Rehabilitation Centre until his last breath.

"I will stand with Geetha in whatever she does for the growth of Shakthidhama," he added.

Calling Chief Minister Bommai as a Chief Minister of the common man, Shivarajkumar said that he was thankful to the CM for the way the Government handled the situation after Appu's sudden death and the conduct of his last rites.

Stating that Bommai has a lot of respect for his family, he expressed hope that the Chief Minister would continue to help Shakthidhama.

MLA S.A. Ramdas in his address, highlighted the services rendered by Shakthidhama for rehabilitation, development and empowerment of women and child care in the past 25 years.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Shakthidhama Vice-President Kempaiah, Trustee Sumana, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, MLAs L. Nagendra and C.S. Niranjan Kumar, actor Sadhu Kokila, Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr .Bagadi Gautham, Chairmen of various Boards and Corporations — H.V. Rajeev, N. Shivalingaiah, N.V. Phaneesh, N.R. Krishnappa Gowda, Hemanthkumar Gowda and L.R. Mahadevaswamy — and a host of other leaders and dignitaries were present on the occasion.

Five Govt. Hostels to provide better learning ecosystem

Ministers inaugurate new buildings at Gangothri Layout, Vasanthanagar

District Minister S.T. Somashekar and Minister for Social Welfare and Backward Classes Welfare Kota Srinivas Poojary, who inaugurated the new hostel building at Gangothri Layout this morning, seen with MP Pratap Simha, MLAs G.T. Devegowda and L. Nagendra, MyLAC Chairman N.V. Phanesh, Corporator Vedvathi and others.

By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

Mysuru, Apr. 8- At a time when students shy away from Backward Classes Welfare Department Hostels due to the normal dismal conditions there, the same Department in Mysuru has transformed the concept of hostels and has so far provided well-equipped hostels for both boys and girls pursuing their academics.

The Department has gone a step further to build more hostels, buoyed by the encouragement it has received from students and parents alike. Many students of Mysuru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Kodagu have made Mysuru city a place for learning.

To accommodate these students, mostly from economically weaker sections of society, the Department was running hostels in different rented buildings. Determined to have buildings of their own, the Department embarked on a major project to construct new hostels and the determination of officers has yielded fruits as five new student hostels are ready to be occupied now.

These five hostels, inaugurated today, can accommodate over 550 students and can solve the stay and food needs of all those students. Apart from providing infrastructural facilities, it plans to offer many other in-house facilities like computer laboratories.

In Mysuru, there are 30 hostels run by the Backward Classes Welfare Department and only 12 hostels have buildings of their own while 18 of them continue to function from rented premises, causing a drain of Government resources. Now as five more new hostels have come up, 17 hostels have their own buildings.

These hostels have come up at Vasanthanagar and Gangothri Layout and four hostels have been built on one campus at Vasanthanagar. The site for the project has been procured from Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and buildings have been built in an area of 5414.16 sq. mts.

The 'A' Block where accommodations will be given to 100 students from D. Devaraj Urs Post-Matric Boys Hostel has been built at a cost of Rs. 3.39 crore and the 'B' Block has been built with Rs. 3.48 crore.

In the 'C' Block, built with Rs. 3.58 crore, 130 male students selected from D. Devaraj Urs Engineering and Medical streams will be accommodated. In the 'D' Block, built with Rs. 3.58 crore, students from D. Devaraj Urs Post-Matric Boys Hostel and students from professional colleges will be accommodated.

"Four hostels have come up at Vasanthanagar and one at Gangothri Layout. All have spacious rooms and dormitories and have been built on the land sanctioned by MUDA at an estimated cost of Rs. 17.19 crore. I am happy that the construction initiative was started and completed under my tenure."

— H.S. Bindiya, District Officer, Backward Classes Welfare Department

While the hostels at Vasanthanagar will have a mix of post-matric and professional students, the hostel constructed at Gangothri Layout at a cost of Rs. 3.26 crore will be reserved for over 110 to 140 post-graduate male students.

In the five hostels, there are 14 dormitories, separate rooms for physically challenged students, toilets, kitchens, treatment rooms and computer laboratories. In all, the hostels have been built at an estimated cost of Rs. 17.19 crore. The students will be accommodated at the hostels from the present academic year.

While the admission process will continue to be based on merit, there will be a strict vigil on how these hostels are managed. The Department rules enlist several tasks expected to be performed by the staff at different levels — starting from wardens to even the cleaning staffers.

MUDA reclaims property

The land was acquired from the land owner Chikkaravanappa (now late) and compensation was paid to him then.

But over the years, some persons, taking advantage of MUDA's failure to secure its acquired land with fence, built unauthorised sheds and such other structures in most part of the land and stayed in them.

Armed with all the acquisition documents and other supporting records, the MUDA authorities, led by MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh, went to the spot early this morning and demolished the unauthorised sheds and other structures and reclaimed the entire land (a little over 2 acres) that was encroached upon.

Even as the MUDA authorities started their demolition operation, the residents entered into a verbal argument with the authorities claiming that about 45 people had 'purchased sites' in the area after entering into an unregistered agreement with the original owner Chikkaravanappa on stamp papers in 1985-86 itself. But they reportedly backtracked after the authorities convinced them that the land indeed belonged to MUDA and they had encroached upon it by building sheds.

Subsequently, the MUDA authorities with the help of 4 JCBs and 8 tippers, demolished the sheds and reclaimed the land, which is now estimated at about Rs.50 crore.

MUDA Superintending Engineer (SE) Shankar, Executive Engineers (EEs) Sunil and Mohan, Assistant EEs Nagesh, Kiran, Shivanna and Mahesh, Special Land Acquisition Officer Harsha and other officials supervised the operation, with the jurisdictional Kuvempunagar Police providing security.

Since Dr. Natesh took over as Commissioner about two years ago, the MUDA has reclaimed/resumed 60-70 acres of encroached land, 120 sites and other properties across the city, totally estimated at about Rs. 700 crore as per the prevalent market value.

District Minister on Chamundi Hill Ropeway

'Will bring anti-project opinions to CM's notice'

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (RKB&BCT)- Amidst growing chorus including from well-known Mysuru residents against the proposed ropeway project atop Chamundi Hill, Mysuru District-in-charge Minister and Minister for Cooperation S.T. Somashekhar said that the public opinion against the project will be conveyed to the CM Basavaraj Bommai.

The revival of the ropeway project to Chamundi Hill — which was kept in the backburner for years due to constant opposition to it from various quarters — was announced in the last budget presented by the CM, who also holds the Finance portfolio.

Ever since the project was announced to be taken up under the Centre's Parvat Mala Scheme, opposition has been growing. Well-known personalities including Chamarajanagar MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad, member of erstwhile Mysore royal family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar and former Mayor B.L. Bhyrappa opposed the project tooth and nail.

Joining the chorus were various environmental groups and organisations. Bowing to public pressure, Minister Somashekar told reporters in Bengaluru that the Government won't pursue the project if the public doesn't want it. He told reporters in Mysuru yesterday that he has examined the statements in the media and would convey the sentiments of the people to the CM.

"The ropeway project has both pro- and anti-stance and the CM has to decide on it. Regarding the restoration of Devaraja Market and Lansdowne buildings, MLA L. Nagendra has already brought the issue to the attention of the CM. All the issues will be suitably decided," he said.

Govt. to support CFTRI food tech finishing school

Minister impressed by 'ragi mudde' and dosa-making machines; savours dishes

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (MK&BCT)-Minister of Information Technology-Biotechnology, Higher Education, Science and Technology Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan said that the State Government would fully support the CSIR-Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI), Mysuru, to set up a finishing school in the area of food technology.

He was speaking after visiting the CFTRI campus last evening where he inspected the over 40 products and technologies developed by the premier food technology institute. He was impressed by the 'ragi mudde'-making machine and dosa-making machine and called the innovations path-breaking. He even savoured the dosa and 'ragi mudde'.

The Minister participated in the presentation of prototypes of various machines for over three hours and his attention was drawn to the efforts of the CFTRI in augmenting the income of rural women and self-help groups.

Scientists told the Minister that many women's self-help groups were preparing homemade products like 'karadantu', 'peda' and 'pickles' but they cannot preserve these products for a long time as the products have very short shelf-life. They told him that the CFTRI was ready to help the women to offer technologies to give longer life for their products.

Even training will be provided for the women in the technologies that will help them augment their income and continue their businesses. Scientists told the Minister that as the CFTRI was the only institute having this expertise, the Government must come forward to support it so that it can benefit women.

Responding positively to the request, Dr. Ashwathnarayan suggested that the products made by women self-help groups must get attractive packaging, branding and a good market. The CSIR-CFTRI can help them in this direction too. This will improve their financial sustainability, he said.

The scientists told the Minister that CFTRI was also ready to impart knowledge to farmers and fruit growers on fruit processing skills so that it can help them prevent losses.

CFTRI's meat and fish technology scientist H.S. Satish said that facilities can be made to farmers to test the quality of their produce and for this, district-level general food processing units can be established. The Minister responded by saying that these issues would be discussed at the Government level.

CFTRI Director Dr. Sridevi Annapurna Singh felt that every farmer need not be required to procure technology developed by CFTRI. Instead, such technologies can be established in Gram Panchayats or in farmer produce centres.

The Minister visited the Incubation Centre set up inside the CFTRI campus built by IT-BT Department and also chaired a meeting with the Director and senior scientists on other activities taken up by the institute.

Protect Bandipur from forest fires: Minister Umesh Katti instructs officials

Steps will be taken for development of Bandipur Tiger Reserve

Gundlupet/Saragur, Apr. 8 (SOMG,Nagesh&KS)- "Necessary steps will be taken for the development of Bandipur Tiger Reserve Forest," assured Forest Minister Umesh V. Katti yesterday.

He was speaking at a press meet after inspecting developmental works undertaken at Bandipur. The Minister said that works such as construction of check dam and clearing of Lantana weeds were underway at Bandipur Forest besides stating that he had inspected the ongoing works.

Pointing out that establishment of an Elephant Camp at Budipadaga in B.R. Hills Tiger Reserve could not take off following COVID pandemic, he said that as the construction of the elephant camp has been announced in the budget, the same will be established soon.

"After I became the Minister of Food and Civil Supplies, I have cancelled 13 lakh illegal ration cards which were given to income tax payers and Government employees. No action has been taken against 22,000 Government employees who had obtained ration cards illegally, but fines have been collected from them. There are 4 lakh new applications for ration cards and the applications are being looked into," Umesh Katti said and later visited Rampura Elephant Camp.

Karnataka stands second in the conservation of tigers. There are a total of 6,800 elephants, 560 tigers and 400 leopards in all reserve forests of the State.

State Wildlife Board Member Malleshappa, Food and Civil Supplies Department Joint Director K. Rameshwarappa, Bandipur Project Tiger Director Ramesh Kumar, Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) K. Paramesh, DCF Malathi Priya and others were present at the press meet.

Steel ropes planned to control menace of wild elephants

Rail barricades are very important to prevent wild elephants from entering villages in forest borders. But as there is a delay in the availability of rail barricades, there are plans to install steel ropes which are being done in neighbouring Tamil Nadu. It is intended to install 600 km rail barricades in the reserve forest area and as of now, 180 km rail barricades has been installed. There is a shortage in the availability of rail barricades and also they are costly. It will cost Rs. 1.5 crore to install rail barricades for one kilometre, but installation of a ropeway fence for 1 km can be taken up at a cost of Rs. 50 lakh and the Government is thinking on it, said Forest Minister Umesh V. Katti.

Protect Bandipur from forest fires

Pointing out that Bandipur Forest was devastated in forest fire in previous years, Minister Umesh Katti said that he has instructed Forest officials to take steps to prevent forest fires in Bandipur.

Speaking to media persons after visiting Nugu Wildlife Range and inspecting Rampura Elephant Camp, the Minister said that a scheme has been formulated to reward the forest staff who works the most to protect the forest.

Stating that a project to install 176 km-long rail barricade has been formulated to protect Bandipur Forest, he said that 50 percent of the works have been completed. "Also, an inspection was conducted to know the status of preventive measures taken to protect Bandipur from fire and instructions have been given to Forest officials to protect the forest," he added.

"There was an appeal to install 15 km-long rail barricades in Nugu Wildlife Range and the same has been installed for about 5 km. The remaining works will be completed soon," Umesh Katti said.

Meanwhile, a group of villagers met the Minister and explained about the problems being caused by wild animals which were destroying their crops. They told the Minister that the compensation being provided was very less and that too comes after too much of delay.

They appealed to the Minister to provide compensation according to the present market price of the crops and also install rail barricades in Nugu Wildlife Range to prevent wild elephants from entering human habitats and destroying crops and properties.

Plea to start safari in Nugu limits

Mahesh, a villager appealed the Minister to start safari in Nugu limits and added that a memorandum in this regard has been submitted to the Forest Department, besides stating that the financial condition of villagers would improve if safari is started in Nugu.

Clear buildings inside the forest

Meanwhile, a group of villagers said that there were many buildings inside the forest and expressed ignorance whether these building were legal or illegally built. Pointing out that one of the buildings inside the forest belonged to a former Minister as per the information they had received, they said that 10 to 15 vehicles enter into the forest every day, which was disturbing the wildlife.

The villagers appealed to the Minister to take action and get the buildings demolished if they were constructed illegally.

Following the appeal by the villagers, Minister Umesh told them that he would look into commencing safari at Nugu and added that he would inspect the documents pertaining to the buildings inside the forest and take action.

Bandipur Project Tiger Director Ramesh Kumar, ACFs Ravi Kumar and Naveen and others were present.
